HICKMAN MILLS JROTC GETS SPECIAL VETERANS DAY HONORS

On a day when military veterans in Kansas City and across the United States are honored, the Hickman Mills Marine Corps JROTC will have the ultimate honor. The school's JROTC Color Guard will present the colors during Veterans Day ceremonies at the National World War I Museum at the Liberty Memorial, Wednesday, Nov. 11 at 10 a.m. The Hickman Mills High School JROTC was chosen over every JROTC unit in the Kansas City area.

"This was quite an honor to be chosen from all the fine high school units," said 1st Sgt. Robert Gray, JROTC instructor at Hickman Mills. The school's JROTC program participates in more than 70 events area-wide during the school year.

The keynote speaker will be Dr. James H. Willbanks, director of the Department of Military History at the U.S. Army Command and General Staff College at Fort Leavenworth, Kan. Veterans Day ceremonies are free and open to the public and will take place indoors at the J.C. Nichols Auditorium.
